Flo Meets the Minions: Progressive® Insurance teams up with Universal Pictures and Illumination Entertainment for Despicable Me 2

Progressive's integrated marketing campaign includes a custom animated TV spot starring Flo and the Minions, driving audiences to a fully themed content hub

MAYFIELD VILLAGE, Ohio — June 5, 2013 — Starting today, visitors to Progressive® Insurance's website will see some familiar new faces. The insurance company is partnering with Universal Pictures and Illumination Entertainment on the launch of Despicable Me 2. Now through the film's release on July 3, consumers will enjoy more of the iconic Minions as they appear throughout several Progressive properties.

Progressive's integrated campaign will include a microsite that features an exclusive scene from the new film, a co-branded online game and an "Evil Laugh" contest that begins on June 3. Consumers can also expect to see the Minions visit the Superstore for a brand new Progressive commercial, along with custom print and digital advertisements.

"This partnership works for us from a business and branding perspective," said Jeff Charney, chief marketing officer at Progressive. "Flo and the Minions are such a natural fit, both bringing a fun and refreshing sense of humor together. With Despicable Me 2 being one of the most anticipated films of the summer, it's a great way to continue to keep the Superstore campaign culturally relevant and fresh. The collaboration also gives our company a great touch point with an important customer base."

"As one of Universal's anchor partners in Despicable Me 2's promotional campaign, Progressive is seamlessly incorporating the signature humor of the Minions into a fun and multifaceted program," said Stephanie Sperber, President, Universal Partnerships and Licensing. "Working with Progressive has been wonderful, and we look forward to collaborating on future projects."
